

An abstract painting by Afiqa A'Mran. It features two stylized, elongated figures. The central figure is a vibrant green, with a face that has dark, heavy-lidded eyes and a small, open mouth. It has long, flowing red hair or tentacles. The figure is seated or crouching, with its hands resting on its knees. To the left, there is a purple figure, also stylized, with a face that has dark eyes and a small, open mouth. It has long, flowing red hair or tentacles. The background is a warm, brownish-orange color, with a blue and white checkered pattern at the bottom. The overall style is expressive and surreal.

Cuturi Gallery is a next generation art gallery founded on the belief that art should be empowering and meaningful for everyone. A curator of change and a custodian of artistic diversity, Cuturi Gallery is a challenger of vested interests and of the status quo, pushing the boundaries of how galleries operate. The gallery connects broad audiences to high-quality art by diverse talents that speaks to the heart and tells the story of an undiscovered generation of aspiring artists that will have the art world aching for more.

Diminishing aristocratic traditions and providing transparency in an art world that is at times daunting, Cuturi Gallery presents an inclusive and democratised art ecosystem which fosters greater collaboration, understanding and appreciation of art amongst artists, collectors and the industry at large.
